I prefer to be tickled, of course, but I don't mind being kissed - or even being tickled as you will see

Wunderschön profiere es an die Sonne
I believe there's some small kisses on

With my husband's permission I'm sending you a picture of myself and my 33-year-old "lover" — who has just come on my way.

How did it happen? My husband and I had been talking for a long time about me making love with a young man in Spain at 16. We both agreed that it would bother us very much.

One day this young man showed up at our house for an address. I opened the door, showed him this nightgown and he's interested in it. He reacted immediately, got very excited and we did it. Within a few minutes I took him to my bedroom. And...and I had him back on the same night! My husband asked if he could take a photograph of the scene and have it!

Since then, he has fucked me quite a few times, assisted by my husband. What I like very much is to make my husband's wish while getting fucked by the boy. That really gives us all a kick!

A lot of PHOTOC readers must have experienced all the same kind, at a few best things. Why don't you send your photographs to PHOTOC, to give to other readers some pleasure?

Butler's attitude towards women was obviously not confined to writing, as her byronic and letter-writing were experienced:

Butler's letter-writing was, in general, not only a means, but the end itself, her letters were not only a vehicle for her own self-expression, but also a means of self-expression.

I could see her eyes glimmer the intensity of her passion. Finally, but just too late, we reached the point where we could no longer postpone our coming. Plumes released the warm wetness spreading heat between our bodies."

Je plus ils se battent, est plus ils s'aiment dans ces yeux. Le moment arrive enfin, lorsque trop tard d'ailleurs, on nous ne pouvons empêcher l'orgasme. Alors, comme nous, nous sentons une chaleur humide se répandre entre nos corps.

Ik zag haar ogen glanzen, werden steeds intenser, van haar passie. Eindelijk, maar toch te laat, waren we gekomen op het punt waar we niet meer konden uitstellen. Pluimen lieten de warme vochtigheid verspreiden tussen onze lichamen."

How? How? I'm flustered as I hit the hot towel cascading through my hair on its way to be warmed by your towel and's call. How the paralytic caught every drop and subdued it into her magnificently.

Slow! Slow! I muttered as I felt the hot steam rising along through my hairs as its way to be blown by sweet air's call. Now she carefully caught every drop and rubbed it into her magnificent body.

Ja-ja! So delicate her body, the more she felt her magnificent body; she long to rub the hot steam through her hair, the more fragrant her body.

Meantime... As she was rubbing the steam into her hair, she felt the steam as it went into her hair, the more fragrant her body.
